

CARAVAN

STUDENT RULES / Guidelines

In order for every student and staff to have a great experience on this trip, the caravan team expects everyone to...

- Respect each other. Respect the staff and property at all locations of the trip. Be respectful of others in the community spaces and in public. Do your best to care for those around you; be includers not excluders!
- Sessions, small groups and other assigned activities are mandatory. You won't want to miss out on any of these!
- No girls in boys' rooms and no boys in girls' rooms.
- Dress code will be followed at all times. (See following).
 - Girls must have a modest one piece swimsuit or tankini, students will be asked to wear shorts and T-shirts if suits are not appropriate.
 - Boys must wear board shorts (no speedos) shirts must be worn when not at the lake or waterslide
 - No spaghetti straps or crop tops
 - Shorts must have 3 inch or longer inseam
 - No clothing with crude, violent, or sexually explicit words or references
- No one is allowed to leave the Caravan group and its activities without prior permission from a parent or guardian, and permission from a Caravan core staff member.
- Regardless of your age, you may not be pierced or tattooed while on Caravan.
- The use of drugs, alcohol, or tobacco will not be tolerated. The Caravan staff reserves the right to send violators home at their own expense.
- I understand that I may be given a name tag, lanyard, and/or wrist band and am expected to wear it at all times as a form of identification for the event.
- Be careful with your property! You are responsible for what you bring!
- Always be aware, if your bus buddy is missing, roommate is missing, small group member is missing...let us know ASAP!
- Be respectful. You are representing our group. Be appropriate, be thoughtful, clean up, treat others kind.
- HAVE FUN! BE POSITIVE!
